THE TITUS 2 MODEL OF MENTORSHIP

Teaching sound doctrine with the purpose of training in godliness for the desired outcome of being transformed to live on mission for Christ.

The following provides an outline to carry out this model:

Teach: Lessons and Mentor/Model.

Teaching sound doctrine…

V. 1- “But as for you, teach what accords with sound doctrine.”

V. 3b- “They are to teach what is good,”

V. 7b-8 “And in your teaching show integrity, dignity, and sound speech that cannot be condemned, so that an opponent may be put to shame, having nothing evil to say about us.”

- Teach the Gospel—the life-changing message of Jesus Christ.
- Teach what the Bible says, not what is cultural popular or what people may want to hear.
- Teach the Gospel, while at the same time building a relationship and modeling what it means to live it out firsthand.

Train: Learn and Mature.

…with the purpose of training in godliness…

Vs. 4-7a- “And so train the young women to love their husbands and children, to be self-controlled, pure, working at home, kind, and submissive to their own husbands, that the word of God may not be reviled. Likewise, urge the younger men to be self-controlled. Show yourself in all respects to be a model of good works,”

- The mentor must realize that their life is an example and their teaching must be held accountable.
- The mentored must be humble, willing to learn, and responsible for the change.
- Together, the mentor and mentored, share life together in biblical accountability and growth.

V. 12- “training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age,”

- The end goal is to look more like Jesus and less like the world.
- The point is not for the mentored to look like the mentor. Rather, the mentored to see Christ in the mentor and replicate Him.

Transform: Live and Mobilize.

…for the desired outcome of being transformed to live on mission for Christ.

Vs. 13-14- “Waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.”

- We must wake up zealous for good works and ready to embrace Kingdom impact.
- This comes to a heart and life committed to the Holy Spirit’s leading, championed by a mentor doing the same.
